THE CITY—The city was unusually quiet yesterday. It was a beautiful day, one which every person seemed to enjoy. All the military officers were almost destitute of business, and the clerks were doing little. Little or no business at all was transacted at the jail. In fact, the city presented a more Sunday-like appearance than we have ever before noticed. The night, indeed, was lovely; the moon, in all her dazzling splendor, was floating about in a clear sky, and the jealous little stars were winking at her as she passed. The sidewalks were alive with ladies and gentlemen going to and coming from the different places of amusement up to a late hour. The two theaters, as well as the fair, were crowded with people. The McClellan meetings were largely attended, and the Democrats of each ward seem determined to go to work in earnest.

THE CITY COURT—No one who does not attend the City Court can form any idea of the amount of business disposed of there. Since the last term of the Jefferson Circuit Court there has been examined before Judge Johnston, besides one hundred and thirty-five felony cases, an innumerable number of cases of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The September term of the docket closed yesterday. Before the judges during this term were presented ninety indictments against different persons, of which six were absolutely dismissed, two dismissed with leave to re-arrest, ten dismissed at defendants' request, and forty-two were continued and twenty-seven were tried, some of whom were found not guilty, and others were found guilty and fined. The amount of fines assessed during the call of this docket was $271.02.

MCCLELLAN MEETING.—A Democratic meeting was held at Schenck's Exchange last night for the purpose of making arrangements for the McClellan ratification meeting to-night. Geo. W. Dineen, Esq., was appointed to the chair and Phil. T. Gorman appointed secretary. On motion it was agreed that at half-past six o'clock, with music, and proceed down to the engine-house, where the second ward will meet, and then proceed out to Jefferson street and down to Schenck's Exchange, where the Third ward will meet, and form in procession and proceed down to the McClellan ratification meeting at the courthouse.

THEATRE—We are under obligations to the young ladies connected with the Urelline Fair, which has been going on this week at Masonic Temple, for a sumptuous supper sent to "the sanctum" last night. Thanks, ladies. We would say to those who wish to have a nice time, that they can spend an evening very pleasantly at Masonic Temple.

HARRIS' NO. 1—Business was very dull yesterday at the "barracks." The clerks report the following arrivals and departures: Sixty contrabands from different points arrived, seven prisoners from Covington and two prisoners from Lebanon. Only two hundred and twenty-two men were sent to different points, mostly to Nashville.

Sixty military matters were rather quiet at Colonel Farleigh's headquarters. Only one man took the oath and gave $5.00 bonds. His name was Joseph C. Hanner, and was released from custody.

PAID OFF.—The Louisville Legion was paid off yesterday. They are in town now with "a pocket full of greenbacks."

MCCLELLAN AND PENDLETON RATIFICATION MEETING.

Let the Democracy Rally to the Courthouse.

Processions from the Upper and Lower Wards.

Speaking, &c., &c.

To night the McClellan men of Louisville will assemble at the courthouse to rally the Chicago nominations.

They assemble to-night in compliance with the suggestion of the Convention—that the action of the Democracy throughout the country may be uniform.

That the Democracy of the nation are heartily for McClellan and Pendleton there can be no doubt. On all public occasions, and wherever an expression of opinion has been obtained, whether among the people or in the army, their voice is unmistakably for the Chicago nominees.

Let the Democracy of Louisville to-night rally to the call. Eminent speakers from home and abroad will be present and deliver addresses. The great issues of the canvass will be discussed.

The meeting to-night promises to be one of the largest ever held in this city. In addition to the meeting at the courthouse there will be a grand torchlight procession.

The Democracy of the Eastern District will assemble at the Lafayette engine-house, while those of the Western District will meet at the Rescued engine-house, on Jefferson street, between Thirtieth and Forty-fourth. The delegations from each district, headed by bands of music, will move toward the courthouse, meeting there at 8 o'clock, where there will be public speaking by orators from different portions of the country.

Let the Democracy turn out en masse, and let them by their actions send terror into the ranks of the Abolition party.

AN INTERESTING CASE.—A YOUNG MAN EMPLOYED WITH HIS EMPLOYER'S WIFE—ROBERT ARREST OF THE PARTIES—Verily, "truth is stranger than fiction," and to verify the truth of this statement one has but to attend our courts from day to day and witness the number of cases presented before which where they can see presented cases which originated from more trivial circumstances than would contribute to form a novel of the most exciting character. On yesterday morning a young man by the name of Louis Boone was presented before the Police Court upon the charge of fornication. The facts elicited were, that the said Louis Boone had formerly resided in the house of John Boecher, and that the former had, during the absence of Boecher, made love to his (Boecher's) wife, and by the wife arts of the seducer got her to leave her husband and flee with him to St. Louis, where he represented that he had a large number of acquaintances and a large fortune, besides a lovely home, which he pictured in her eyes as being more beautiful than the imaginary home which Claude Duval described to Lady Pauline in the famous drama of the Lady of Lyons. The two took their flight to St. Louis and put up at one of the principal hotels, but soon becoming tired of that life, they went to housekeeping, the furniture being purchased with the money which Mrs. Boecher had stolen from her husband prior to her departure, and which amounted to over $450. Mrs. Boecher, becoming tired of her new-found love, returned to this place and prayed the forgiveness of her husband, leaving Boone in possession of the $450 she had stolen from her husband. Young Boone followed the wife of Boecher to this city and endeavored to induce her to again leave her husband, which she not only refused to do, but had the said Boone arrested and placed in the jail upon the charge of robbery and fornication.

The proof, as elicited before the Police Court yesterday, showed that if any crime was committed it was committed in the State of Missouri, and the accused was discharged. He was afterwards presented on a peace warrant, where he was sent to the workhouse for six months in default of $800 bail.

IMPORTANT ARREST.—AN OLD OFFENDER IN TROUBLE—Yesterday (Friday) D. B. Blich arrested a man by the name of Joe Jenkins, who is an old offender, and well known to the police as a notorious thief. He was in our city some three years since, and robbed Mr. Muldon of a fine watch, but managed to evade the vigilance of the law. He left town, and did not return until last week, when he made his appearance at the city jail and demanded to see some prisoners, which demand was refused. At the National Hotel on Thursday night he was recognized by Mr. Muldon as the man who stole his watch, and the fact of his being at the hotel was made known to officer Blich. Thursday night Jenkins went to a private boarding-house on Green street, where he robbed the boarders of different amounts of money. He left there and returned to the National Hotel, and when he entered his room he was nabbed by the officer. He will have a hearing before Judge Johnston this morning.

MALTY'S OYSTERS.—The well-known oyster house of Maltby, in Baltimore, is famous throughout the country. Wherever his oysters find their way through the markets of the West, they are esteemed No. 1. In Louisville they have long enjoyed that reputation.

Mr. John T. Monach, on the east side of Third, between Market and Jefferson, is agent for Maltby in Louisville. Those fond of bivalves should always secure the best.

MERCHANT TAILORS.—Messrs. J. L. Shower & Co., 227 Third street, near Main, are in the receipt of a very superior stock of cloths, calicoes, vestings, &c., which they are prepared to render into clothing, after the most improved mode and fashions. Those in need of a splendid outfit will find Messrs. Shower & Co. fully prepared to serve them.

MCCLELLAN FLAGS.—Yesterday we noticed the material being cut out to be made by Mr. Hinch Wilkins, Fourth street, into a large McClellan and Pendleton flag, for the citizens of Leavenworth, Indiana. It is forty feet in length. Hurray for them, and the flag, too!

AN OLD CITIZEN DEAD.—In our columns elsewhere will be found the death notice of Samuel K. Page, an old citizen of Louisville. His funeral is announced to take place from his residence, on Walnut street, on Saturday, the 17th inst., at 3 o'clock P. M.

The P. & O. Mail had nothing to do yesterday, with the exception of one case. A young man shouted for Jeff. Davis in Jeffersonville, and he was brought over the river and incarcerated in the military prison until further orders.

Yesterday officer William Cross arrested a negro by the name of John Wesley, charged with stealing a small amount of money from some person whose name we did not learn.

The Peter Gooney mentioned in our police report yesterday was not the gentleman of that name who is connected with the telegraph office.

PERMISSION.—We happened to step into

Burkiss' No. 1 yesterday in time to witness a very pleasant ceremony. All the soldiers connected with the barracks were drawn up in line in the rear of the building, and Captain Rowden, with the Barracks band, made his appearance, and made the welcome thing with a lively and pretty piece. A large crowd was gathered together, when Major Alexander Magruder's presence was required. He stepped out, perfectly surprised, when Com. Sergeant Luke Warren stepped forward with a magnificent order, and a splendid and a splendid gold chain and key in his hand. Turning to Major Magruder, he said:

Major Magruder.—As a token of the high esteem in which we hold you, as our officer, and as a soldier, please accept this beautiful watch and chain, and with them our highest and most unforgotten regards, for the dignified manner in which you have presided over us since you took command at this place; and may we humbly hope to be kindly remembered by you in the future—and may you, and all of us, soon be permitted to return to our former happy home, and an honorable peace upon the prairie throughout this land, and the day of our fathers wave over a united, happy and prosperous people.

Major Magruder accepted the present and compliment, and responded in a few very neat and appropriate remarks, after which three rousing cheers were given for the Major with a will. The band then struck up the Star Spangled Banner, while the crowd began to disperse.

The watch was a fine one. It was purchased by contributions from the officers, non-commissioned officers and privates under his command, and was given up by Mr. Wm. Kendrick, of this city. It could not have been a better present from a more worthy set of soldiers to a more courteous gentleman and soldier than to Major Alex. Magruder.

Amusements.
WOOD'S THEATRE.—LAST NIGHT OF THE CANTON ZOOLOGICAL TRUMPET.—The Canton Zoon and Berger Family make their last appearance in our city to-night at Wood's Theatre. This troupe are great favorites in Louisville, and the citizens will part with them with many regrets. In the "French Dances" last night Mr. J. C. Durenbory and Miss Maggie were warmly received, and both proved themselves to be actors of more than ordinary ability. They will give a grand matinee this afternoon at 2 o'clock, which, with their performance to-night, will close their engagement.

To those who have not seen this troupe we would say, be sure and attend, as this will be the last opportunity you will have of seeing them.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—Mr. Barrett was greeted with a large and fashionable audience last night, on the occasion of his benefit. To night the great play "Rosalind" will be presented for the sixth time. Mr. Barrett appearing as "Elliot Grey." There will be a matinee at half-past 2 o'clock. The bill for the afternoon performance will consist of the "Iphigeneia" and the "Spectre Bridgeman."

THE THEATRE OF LITTLE WEST.—There is but little doubt but that the Philopoponians of the present age is identical with the "Edemoth" of Sacred History. A rare opportunity is to be given to our citizens to witness a living specimen of this animal, about which so much has been written by sacred and profane writers. Messrs. Geo. T. Bailey & Co.'s Grand Circus, Heri Dicksbach's Menagerie, and Sande, Nathans & Co.'s performance elephants, together with the gigantic hippopotamus, imported to this country by G. C. Quick, Esq., at an expense almost fabulous, will be on exhibition at the lot on Chestnut street, near Floyd, on the 10th proximo, and will remain for five days.

CONVICTED ON THE FOURTH INST.—A very unusual case was yesterday decided in the Police Court by the accused being held to bail to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court. It appears that some time since one Pat Mandy was robbed of about nine hundred dollars at a boarding-house on the wharf.

The next day after the robbery one Nell O'Donnell was arrested, charged with the robbery. He had an examination before Judge Johnston and was discharged. Mandy not being satisfied with the decision of the Judge, had O'Donnell again arrested, and he was the second time discharged. After this new facts were brought to light, and a third warrant was issued against O'Donnell, and he was again before Judge Johnston and discharged. After his discharge this time he confessed to some one as to the robbery, and was heard to state where the money was concealed. He was yesterday presented before the court for the fourth time on the same charge, and after a thorough investigation he was held to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court.

The following list gives the principal shipments from the depot in this city to Gen. Sherman's army from the 23d of June to the 25th of July:

One of our citizens asked a patriotic booster, in New Albany, Thursday, how many McClellan flags he had taken up at the ratification meeting, to which he replied: "The war's" much calculation, and couldn't count 'em, but he knew there was about sixteen acres of 'em."
